Costa Verde Ilha Grande and Paraty

Round trip transfer breakfast and tours

Wonderful experience along the south coast of Rio de Janeiro. You will be impressed by the beaches with clear waters and emerald color, with fine white sand, surrounded by an exuberant Atlantic Forest (one of the most preserved in this Biome). Ideal for couples, groups of friends and families looking for outdoor activities.

Visiting: Ilha Grande; A magical place, full of natural beauties, surrounded by beaches, covered by the Atlantic Forest and crossed by winding trails, the extensive Praia de Lopes Mendes, flanked by palm trees, is known for its waves suitable for surfing. The Lagoa Azul has protected waters full of fish. Vila do Abraão has the historic Church of São Sebastião, from the 19th century.

Paraty; It is a small city with mountains in the region of the border between the São Paulo river. . Its Portuguese colonial center has cobbled streets and buildings from the 17th and 18th centuries from the time when it functioned as a port, during the Brazilian gold cycle. Among its architectural landmarks is the Chapel of Santa Rita by the sea, a whitewashed church built in 1722.
